Annie Day Shepard Scholars
Mentor Application
FACULTY/STAFF/ALUMNAE

The Annie Day Shepard Scholars (ADS) Program inspires and supports undergraduate women to become engaged, confident and connected leaders in the North Carolina Central University community and beyond. http://www.nccu.edu/womenscenter

Upperclass mentors, faculty and North Carolina Central University alumnae provide an empowering environment. Scholars are expected to positively influence the culture for women at North Carolina Central University, offering new ideas about how to measure academic and social success.

APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED FROM FEMALE STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF AND ALUMNAE

If you are interested in being a volunteer mentor with the Women's Center, please complete this application by Friday, August 3, 2012. Mail the completed application to:

NCCU Women's Center
North Carolina Central University
1801 Fayetteville Street, Women's Center Building (former ROTC)
Durham, NC 27707

or email it to womenscenter@nccu.edu.

1) Full Name:_____

2) Current designation (circle all that apply):

FACULTY/STAFF (department _____)

ALUMNA (major_____ graduation year _____)

3) Preferred E-mail Address:_____

4) Preferred Phone Number(s): (_____) _____

5) Current campus activities or community organizations (list):_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

5) If after graduating from NCCU, I could have had any job in the world, I would have been a:_____
_____

Explain why:_____
_____
_____
_____

7) What advice to you wish somebody would have given you when you were younger:_____
_____
_____
_____

Annie Day Shepard Scholars
Mentor Application
FACULTY/STAFF/ALUMNAE

_____

_____

8) My definition of Mentor is:_____

_____

_____

_____

9) My definition of good relationship is:_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

10) Share any additional information the committee should take into consideration when selecting Mentors_____

_____

_____

_____

11) Best meeting days/times: - _____

_____

BY SUBMITTING THIS APPLICATION, I AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS. I ALSO UNDERSTAND THAT IF I DO NOT FOLLOW THESE GUIDELINES, I MAY LOSE THE PRIVILEGE OF MENTORING WITH WILL, AS MY POSITION COULD BE OFFERED TO ANOTHER PERSON:

1) I agree to attend all meetings prior start of the program. Meetings will be scheduled at the most convenient times for the mentors and students. If I cannot attend, I will have a valid reason and will notify the appropriate individual 24 hours in advance to be updated on the material missed during the meeting.

Dates:

Mentor Orientation- Wednesday, August 29, 2012 at 5:30pm at NCCU;

I agree to obey all NCCU policies and procedures regarding student code of conduct during all program activities.

2) I agree to dedicate my attendance to this program to guide students towards their respective path of interest.

3) I agree that if I am chosen to mentor for the program, but choose to not attend for an unacceptable reason, I will notify the Women's Center so they can find a replacement since the mentor - student ratio is one of the keys to the success of this program.

Applicant Signature:_____ Date:_____