

NCCU Delegation donates Humanitarian goods to Juvenile Centres in Uganda

The delegation of Experts from the Criminal Justice Administrations has made donations of humanitarian supplies to the children of The Naguru Remand Home and The National Rehabilitation Centres, Mpigi in Uganda. This was in response to the need to alleviate basic welfare needs of the children in those institutions.

L- R: Personal Assistant to UNAFRI Director, Mr. Patrick Mwaita; Head-teacher Mulago school for the deaf, Mr. Kanyankole Portase; Adjunct Prof., NCCU & a Retired Warden, Mr. Matthew Hamidullah; Assistant Warden Naguru Remand Home, Mr. Mwanja Hussein; Principal, National Rehabilitation Centre Mpigi, Mr. Michael Alule; Director UNAFRI, Dr. Masamba Sita and Chair, Dept. of Criminal Justice, NCCU, during the presentation of humanitarian goods to the Juvenile Centres at UNAFRI Secretariat.

The ceremony conducted at the UNAFRI Secretariat by the Head of the Delegation, Dr. Harvey L. McMurray, also had in attendance the Director of UNAFRI, Dr. Masamba Sita and staff of the Institute.

While handling over the supplies, Dr McMurray praised both juvenile institutions for the service being rendered. He said these provisions are done because they appreciate the work being carried out at the institutions and want to alleviate some of the challenges they are facing at the institutions.

On their part, the senior officers present during the event appreciated the noble gesture, expressed the gratitude of the Institutions to the team and hope that this collaboration would continue to yield much more of their needs in the future.

The Director UNAFRI, Dr. Sita thanked the delegation for their kind humanitarian gesture towards these disadvantage children.

Supplies given included; Shoes; School kits; Hygiene kits; Shirts/Tee Shirts; Hats; Miscellaneous Hair Accessories, amongst others
