Dear Prospective December 2018 Graduate:

Congratulations on your candidacy for graduation! Commencement exercises will be held Saturday, December 8, at 9 a.m. in the McDougald-McLendon Arena. Paying close attention to the following checklist should help to prepare you for a happy and memorable event:

1. Consult your academic advisor now to be certain of your graduation status.
2. Contact your department chairperson for any questions you may have concerning completion of your degree requirements.
3. Pay the Graduation Fee of $55 and any other charges on your student account. Please make all payments to the Bursar's Office, (919) 530-6209. Download Instructions to View Balance and Pay Account Online. You will not be allowed to participate in Commencement, nor will you receive your diploma, if you have an outstanding balance on your account.
4. If you have received any form of student loan or financial aid, you must be cleared by the Office of Scholarship and Student Aid and the Federal Loan Office by December 3.
 - If you have received a 'Perkins' Loan, you must contact the Federal Loan Office at (919) 530-7122, to schedule an appointment for your exit interview. You must bring a state-issued id and your Social Security Card to your appointment.
 - If you have received a 'Stafford' or 'Plus' Loan, you must complete your exit counseling online at <https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/index.action>. Contact the Office of Scholarship and Student Aid, at (919) 530-7410 for assistance.
5. If you have not already done so, purchase the prescribed Academic Regalia, which are required to march in graduation exercises, at the NCCU Bookstore. Contact the NCCU Bookstore at (919) 530-6445 for assistance.
6. Undergraduates are required to complete the Graduating Senior Survey which is administered by the Office of Research, Evaluation & Planning, (919) 530-7896. You will receive instructions and a password directly from that office for access to the online survey.
7. Complete the community service hours required for undergraduate students. Check your hours online at Get Connected (use your myEOL login). Contact the Office of Community Engagement and Service at (919) 530-7076 or tartis@nccu.edu for assistance.
8. Pick up your Graduation Permit-to-March card in the B.N. Duke Auditorium on Thursday, December 6 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Your Permit indicates completion of all degree requirements and is required for admission to the 'Line of March' at Commencement. You will also receive your Honor Cord(s) if you are graduating with distinction.

9. Pick up admission tickets for your guests on Thursday, December 6 in the B.N. Duke Auditorium. Admission to the McDougald-McLendon Arena is by ticket only. Admittance to the overflow venues will not require a ticket.
10. All students who intend to participate in Commencement Exercises must receive, read, and sign the North Carolina Central University Commencement Decorum Agreement. This signed document must be submitted to the Registrar's Office prior to December 6.
11. All students who intend to participate in Commencement Exercises must participate in Graduation Rehearsal which will begin promptly at 11 a.m., Friday, December 7, in the McDougald-McLendon Arena. Candidates for master's degrees should bring your graduation hood to rehearsal.
12. Please plan to attend the Chancellor's Reception for you and your family, at the Alfonso Elder Student Union on Friday, December 7, at 6 p.m.
13. If you are not participating in the Commencement exercises and wish to have your diploma mailed to you, please download this form, Request for Diploma Mailing, and submit to the Office of the Registrar along with your complete mailing address and $10 check or money order to cover the cost of certified mailing. Payment may also be made by phone to the Bursar's Office, (919) 530-6209.
14. Please stop by the Office of the Registrar to make sure that your permanent address is updated.

Again, you are to be congratulated on your great accomplishment and we will look forward to celebrating with you on December 8!

Remember...Failure to successfully address the following matters, on or before December 3, can interfere with your participation in the Commencement ceremony. Take personal responsibility to insure the completion of your degree requirements:

- Pay the $55 graduation fee to the Bursar's Office
- Complete the required senior survey (undergraduates only)
- Complete the required community service hours (undergraduates only)
- Schedule and complete the loan exit interview, if applicable
- Clear your student account by paying all outstanding balances by December 3
- Read and sign the NCCU Commencement Decorum Agreement
- Obtain a permit to march.

Sincerely,

Jerome Goodwin
