Mr. James Ployhar, Composer
“Always do your best” were words repeated to Kristi Jones throughout her childhood. This was one of many early lessons that influenced Jones in her professional and personal endeavors as an adult.

A cum laude graduate of North Carolina Central University, she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science. She continued her studies at the University of North Carolina School of Law, where she earned a Juris Doctor.

Jones started her career working in non-profit organizations, first at the Opportunities Industrialization Center of Wilson, N.C., and later in Greenville, N.C. These experiences helped her understand that many needs remain unmet despite the work of private or public agencies. Jones continues to support a number of nonprofit agencies by doing volunteer work, serving on boards and offering personal financial support to effective programs.

Her public service career started in the late 1990s, when she became a staff member to Gov. James B. Hunt Jr., serving as the executive director of the North Carolina Initiative on Race. This innovative initiative was instrumental in improving race relations in North Carolina by fostering private and public collaborations between business and community leaders.

In 2017, North Carolina’s 75th governor, Roy Cooper, appointed Jones as the first African-American female to serve as chief of staff for the Office of the Governor. She is responsible for implementing the governor’s agenda and goals by working with cabinet secretaries, senior staff, community citizens and corporations to improve the quality of life for all North Carolinians. Prior to this appointment, Jones served for 10 years as chief of staff for the N.C. Department of Justice.

The Wendell-Wake Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People honored Jones as Humanitarian of the Year for her grassroots and statewide work as a public administrator and volunteer.

Jones says she remains mindful each day of the values she learned in childhood and continues to “do her best” in all facets of life. She feels humbled and blessed to have had unique professional opportunities and is personally grateful for the love and support of her husband, Muye Akinkuotu.

The Alma Mater

Dear Old N.C.C.

*Annie D. Shepard
Harry T. Burleigh*

The sloping hills, the verdant green,
The lovely blossoms’ beauteous sheen
Surround our college proud and gay
Where wave our colors, Maroon and Gray
What matters it how far we roam,
Our thoughts will oft return to home
And hearts will e’er be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.

REFRAIN:
Then Rah! Rah! Rah! for our colors so gay,
Dear Old N.C.C.’s Maroon and Gray;
Thy Sons and Daughters will honor thee,
Dear Old N.C.C.

II
We’ve gathered here to fit our lives
As from the darkness light revives
So let us hail, both night and day
Our glorious colors, Maroon and Gray.
We’ll ever love and honor thee,
For thou hast taught us loyalty.
Then let our watchword “Service” be
To Alma Mater, N.C.C.

III
You send us forth with hearts of love
So like a blessing from above,
And from the path we’ll never stray.
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and Gray
We’ll work and fight, we’ll win our way.
When duty calls, we shall obey.
And may we e’er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.
