

FALL WEBINAR SERIES –TUESDAYS from 1:00- 2:00PM

(registration details may be found at www.nccucounseling.com)

This fall we will conduct a series on crisis, trauma, and grief topics for the September, October, and November webinars. These will be presented by:

Dr. Peggy P. Whiting, Professor & Coordinator of Counselor Education at NCCU. Dr. Whiting has taught, published, and maintained a clinical practice in these areas for the past 30+ years. She is a Licensed Professional Counselor Supervisor, a K-12 Licensed School Counselor, and a Certified Thanatologist.

September 12th – Correcting Myths & Misperceptions about Grief

Individuals, including counselors, inadvertently carry many notions about grief that are incorrect. This webinar is aimed at examining 15 common myths and misperceptions and correcting those with best research and practice findings.

October 10th – Crisis, Trauma, & Grief: Distinguishing Definitions, Best Practices, and Resources for Counselors

This webinar will look at the distinctions and overlaps of events of crisis, trauma, and grief. The purpose is for counselors to define these terms, identify best practices for each, and delineate resources in these areas.

November 14th – How Counseling Can Help: Case Illustrations of Interventions in Grief Situations

This webinar will use 3 case examples of intervention with individuals in grief situations. These individuals are actual client cases used to illustrate grief counseling in action. The cases are used either with explicit client permission or discussed with anonymity in order to protect client confidentiality.

December 12th – To Be Announced...Dr. Chad Royal, Facilitator
