

September 2023 STUDENT AFFAIRS

Board of Trustees Report

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR

The start of a new academic year brings with it excitement, opportunities, and the promise of growth and development. A new year gives us the opportunity to set goals, discover new interests, and strive for excellence.

The NCCU Division of Student Affairs strives to create an inclusive and supportive community where each student can flourish both personally and academically. We value diversity, equity, and inclusion, and we celebrate the unique perspectives and backgrounds that each one of you brings to our campus. Our vibrant and dynamic campus life offers a wide range of clubs, organizations, and events that will enrich your experience and help you forge lifelong connections.

As the Vice President for Student Affairs, I want to assure you that your safety, well-being, and success are our highest priorities. Our dedicated team of counselors, case managers, and support staff are here to provide guidance and assistance whenever you need it. I encourage you to take advantage of our academic resources, career services, and wellness programs, as they are designed to help you navigate the challenges and opportunities that arise throughout your college journey.

As we embark on this new academic year together, let us commit ourselves to personal growth, academic excellence, and creating a campus community where each student feels valued and empowered. Together, we will overcome challenges, seize opportunities, and make this academic year one of our best yet.
